The schools will store your data:

- On paper and / or electronically before September 2018
- Electronically (as from 3rd September 2018)

4) Why does the school process your personal data?

We process personal information about pupils and their families:

- to support pupil learning
- to monitor and report on pupil progress
- to provide appropriate pastoral care
- to assess the quality of our services
- to keep children safe (food allergies, or emergency contact details)
- to meet the statutory duties placed upon us for Welsh Government data collections
- to administer trips and activities, catering and free school meal management

5) Special categories of personal data:

Race, ethnic origin, religion, general data, sexual orientation, social care records

The school can process this category of data because:

For the processing of personal data to be lawful, an Article 6 condition from the general Data Protection Regulations 2016 is required.

Mandatory school processing of pupil information is covered by the Article 6 condition – processing is necessary for compliance with a legal obligation to which the controller is subject. The legal obligation is contained within the Education Act 1996 and associated Welsh Government regulations.

Optional processing of personal data is covered by the Article 6 condition – explicit consent. If this is the case, you have the right to withdraw consent. Please contact the school for further information.

Data Protection legislation provides extra protection for certain classes of information called ‘special category’ personal data, which includes:

- Physical or mental health or condition
- Politics
- Racial or ethnic origin
- Religion or other beliefs of a similar nature
- Sex life
- Sexual orientation
- Biometrics (where used for identification purposes)
